POLICE FIND ANOTHER BOMB.

Men Arm Their Employees.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

The already strong guard established round the jall and Criminal Court building was doubled last night. Police srmed with Springdeld rifles and fixed bayonets guard the entrances, and the corridors of the jall are patrolled by deputies heavily armed. That portion facing lilinous street is regarded by the Sheriff as the weakest side of the jall, and as crowds of people stood around there yesterday to get a sight of what they supposed were the "Anarchists," the Sheriff has ordered them to be dispersed to-day.

Leading business firms have been taking precautions to protect their property from dynamite. A lot of Pinkerton men are patrolling Marshall Field's new wholesale store by night, and the employees have been furnished with small arms, and instructed to use them if necessary.

BACING ACROSS COUNTRY.

Carter Wine the New York Athletic Club's

The hill at Fort George at the end of the

One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street cable road was crowded this morning with athletes and ladies, who came up to see the fifth annyal cross-country championship run of the

New York Athletic Club. The race was over

MANNING WINS THE PIRST.

Opening of the Pool Match at the Columbia

Billiard Hall.

The seats in the committee room at the Columbia Billiard Hall were sold before playing in the Manning-Powers pool match.

NEW FACES AT THE HOTELS.

Capt. Cook, of the Etruria, stays at the Major McKerrel, of Scotland, is at the

Mr. Vander Keeft, Orange, N. J. is a guest at the Albemarie.

At the Hoffman are J. L. Lawrence, of Washington, and Wilson Soule, of Rochester.

Gen. M. C. Wentworth, of Jackson, N. H., and Dr. William Duffy, of Buffalo, are regis-tered at the Normandie.

Two famous astronomers, Prof. Asaph Hall and Dr. C. H. F. Peters, of Hamilton College,

The Fifth Avenue register bears the names of Col. C. McLean and wife, of San Fran-cisco, and W. A. Haskell, of Boston.

Ex-Gov. Thomas M. Waller, United State

Consul at London, is staying at the New York Hotel, while the Clarendon shelters ex-Gov. John T. Hoffman.

George F. Wright, of R. H. White & Co., Boston; ex-Mayor W. G. Thompson, of De-troit, and the Japanese Legation to Washing-ton are booked at the Victoria.

Bribed a Bogus Detective.

Thomas H. Farley, thirty years old, of 848

Ninth avenue, was a prisoner at Jefferson Market

Court to-day. He was arrested on the complaint again."

Suspecting that he was a fraud, Jennie followed Farley to the corner, where he entered a liquor saloon. She then summoned a polloeman and had him taken into custody. As Farley demanded an examination, Justice Patterson set the case down

Way Not Yet Arrested.

Rice could give no reason this morning to an EVENING WORLD reporter why A. M. Way, the Fell from Roof to Cellar.

INFECTAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. I HACKETTSTOWN, Nov. 8.—Patrick Donovan, o

lainfield, N. J., employed on the new Method

No Cause for Werry.

"What kind of a ring is it?" saked experience

eorge-''diamond ?"
''Ro; a cheap affair; only cost a couple of do lars. "Well, don't you give up the ship, old man; she'll be all right in a day or two. It is only when a girl lets go of a diamond ring that she really means business, ighed Charley, "and all is over between us."

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
NEW BRUNSWICE, N. J., Nov. 8.—Pros

are now at the Murray Hill.

which was begun last night, and the limiting

Evening World.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8.

SUBSCRIPTION (Including Postage), PER MONTH, 30c.; PER YEAR, $3.50.

THE OCTOBER RECORD.

Total number of "Worlds" printed during he month of October, 1887.

8,479,380 AVERAGE PER DAY FOR THE ENTIRE

273,526 Copies.

ADVERTISING RATES

Ordinary, 25 cents per line. No artra price for acceptable display. Business or Special Notices, opposite Editorial page, 50 cents per line. Reading Notices, starred or marked "Advit," I First page, $1.50 per line; Inside page, $1 e raise for advertising in the Daily WORLD do not op-to the Beening Issue. Nor do the raise of that issue y to the Borning Militan.

THE POLIS CLOSE AT 4.

There will yet be time for many who read the first edition of THE EVENING WORLD to NECOLA AND HOUSE GOVERNMENT.

The polls close at Four e'clock. Don't neglect your first duty as a citizen. Help to smash the machine and veto Bossism

WHERE TO GET THE NEWS.

Do you want the news to-night—the first news, the fullest news, the exact news, uncolored by partisanship and unsuppressed by

Well, the correct place to get it is at THE World's bulletins in Park row, in Madison Square and at City Hall Square, Brooklyn.

Moreover, THE EVENING WORLD is making an independent canvass of the vote for District-Attorney. It will print the facts about that contest and all the rest of the ticket without reserve and without delay. It will issue extras every hour up to midnight, and, unless the vote is exceedingly close or some unforeseen delay occurs, no New Yorker need go to his slumbers without a pretty definite idea of the result.

THE OPP-YEAR RIECTIONS.

Four States will to-day elect Governor Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts and Ohio.

Iowa and Massachusetts are regarded as pertainly Republican and Maryland as Surely Demogratic. Ohio is in doubt.

Minor State officers are to be elected to New York, Nebraska and Pennsylvania. The former is naturally a Democratic and the two latter Republican States.

Two Congressmen to fill vacancies are to be elected in this State and one in Rhode Island. Upon the result in the latter State will depend the ability of the Republicans to choose a President should the election be thrown into the House.

Legislatures are to be chosen in whole or in part in Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts, asippi, New Jersey, New York, Ohio and Virginia. Territory, and Oregon on three constitutional amendments.

Full election returns will be given in Tax WonLD, morning and evening.

HISTORY REPEATING ITSELP. Democracy was on trial when in 1871-2-3 under the leadership of Transa, it grappled with the infamous Twarp Ring within its ranks. Democracy is on trial to-day in endeavor ing to throw off the corrupt rule of Boodler and Boss and become again the party of the The ability to purge itself is the suprem test of any party. THERE, standing in the column of good government, was triumphant, and that tri umph made the Democracy stronger than Remember, Democrats, the election of NICOLL to-day does not weaken but strengthens the true Democracy.

THE MARTYRDOM OF O'BRIPH.

Mr. O'BRIEN, M. P., very properly resist the efforts of the British authorities to humiliate him by forcing him to don a convict's garb and consort with thieves and petty criminals

He is a political prisoner, and not a felon. Though the bull-headed English officials may not admit that he is a patriot, they should at least recognize that he is a gentle man and that his imprisonment is simply political expediency.

To put him on bread and water diet and subject him to all manner of indignities is but to intensify his martyrdom and add fuel to the flames of Irish discontent and rebellion

Ireland seems to need many martyrs. But their enforced silence is more eloquent than speech. Their persecution but hastens the day of triumph for Home Rule.

A BECLOUDED MIND.

There must be something very unwhole some in the atmosphere of the City Hall.

Otherwise how could the clear-headed ABRAM S. HEWITT of a year ago say now of the disclosure of Col. FELLows's gambling "That is a question for gamblers to settle." But for the malarial poison in the City Hall air Mayor Hawrrr would see that when it is proposed to elect a confessed gambler to enforce the laws against gambling, it is "a question" between the people and the samblers.

Missmatic effects are likewise evident in Mayor HEWITT's defense of FELLows's action in taking Tween's money. "I never heard it was a sin to borrow money from a bad

The Board of Health should at once look after the ventilation of the City Hall.

OPEN THE DOORS.

The opening of the Lenox Library to the public from 11 A. M. to 4 P. M. daily is a movement in the right direction. The principle should be carried further and applied to other institutions.

Why should any of our large collections of books and pictures be buried from the publie and lose their usefulness? Let the trustees of these treasures adopt the most liberal and not the most stifling policy. Books were not made for moths, nor pictures for the dark. Open the doors, and open them wide.

JOHN L. ABROAD.

The biceps is mightier than the pen. Rus-MELL LOWELL and Dr. HOLMES 10 de barely a ripple in London compared to the tremendous ovation that has greeted JOHN L. SULLIVAN Ten thousand men met him at the station and 200 policemen were required to maintain order. All London is in a furor.

This tribute is particularly generous, for England is much prouder of her pugilists than of her poets. She is obliged to bow be fore the only JOHN L. Upon the very hearthstone of the Marquis of Queensageany he is ready to meet and cheerfully wallop all

The Bostonese may reap a harvest of profit as well as pride out of John L,'s tour. While the beef-eaters of England are admiring the great man's proportions and absorbing the remotest details of his daily life, he may patriotically divulge the secret that he is bean-eater. Will not this be an invaluable advertisement of the succulent and musclegiving baked bean, at present unknown in England? Perhaps there is a big boom in store for Boston's languishing export trade.

Bully for Britons and the brawn.

ON THE RIGHT SIDE.

The great German meeting last night wa an honor to our adopted fellow-citizens of that nationality.

If it did not put the finishing pail in the coffin of Bossism, so much the worse fo

All honor to voters who place principle before party, and who retain the ownership of themselves!

A BOODLE CARVAGE.

For the first time in years the local Demo eratic committees in this city have not epent a dollar for public meetings in behalf of the State ticket

Not a dollar has gone for parades, music speeches or documents.

Not an idea beyond the spoils has been pre sented, nor a State or national issue discussed during the entire campaign.

All the effort has been directed to elective a candidate for District-Attorney who would consider it "bad politics" to push the prosecution of public thieves of one's own party.

And all the money—the LARGEST CORRUPTION FUND SINCE THE DAYS OF TWEED-has been reserved for use to-day. It is a square contest between Boodle and Principle.

Republican " heelers" and machine men are as naturally opposed to honest government as are Democrats of the same class They are always ready to " combine " for the spoils. Hence it is not strange that the Republican "ward workers" have joined in the work of trading and knifing Nicota. There is no politics in roguery, but lots of roguery in politics.

There was a sharp point to the witticism of the Frenchman in reply to one who favored the abolition of the death penalty: "Let messiours the murderers set the example.' The dead and mutilated policemen at Chicago met with neither justice nor mercy.

At the opening of the polls this morning the early rush of NICOLL ballots let a ray of "daylight" into the minds of the anxious politicians. The aforesaid ray will become a perfect effulgence by sundown.

THE WORLD expects to win in this fight. But it would rather a thousand times be beaten on the side of the People than to second on the side of the Bosses.

nail against the Big Tween. Of course he is putting forth his best efforts against the swarm of Tweedlets to-day.

In the "tug of war" between the Machine and the People honest workingmen should not lean against a Posr as idle spectators of

INVITING ONE MORE KICK.

The "Deadly Parallel" Applies Its Deadly Kick Once More.

From the Herald, Nov. 8.] From the Herald, Oct. 7. It would be a kindness. The Herald's only obhim lessure for study. If nomination of young Mr. Fellows, under the Nicell for District-Attorcircumstances, is de-ney is to have the rights feated it would be the of the people properly decruel end of a brilliant fended. Nicoli is full of career. Defeat of Mr. healthy blood; he is Nicell would be his gain, tough as a bickery nut;

he knows a hawk from a handsaw every time, and to offer him a bribe he sould throse him out of the Afth-story window and telephone for the Cor-

No Cards.

[From the Burlington Free Press.] She (blushing)—Yes, Reginald, if you insist up t, we will be married next month. But I have

"What is that, dearest?"
"There must be no cards. I solemnly promised dear paps, when I was thirteen years old, that I would never have anything to do with cards."

IT WAS A MEAN ADVANTAGE.

and Circumstance Attending

Leopold Jordan, a London dramatic author, who arrived in this city recently from Australia, told a story the other night that will interest a good many New York artists. The Chicage Jail Closely Guarded-Busine William C. Fitler, Walter L. Smedley and Fred B. Schell went over to Australia about a year and a half ago to make illustrations for a picturesque atlas of Australasia. While CHICAGO, Nov. & .- Bombs or reputed bombs are turning up or being reported everywhere. One there they were made much of by journal-ists, artists, actors and club men. One night a party of thirteen, including the American artists and Mr. Jordan, spent was supposed to be full of dynamite found this morning on West Van Buren street, near Ladin, and not far a happy time in a club in Sydney and then started down the street in a sort of procession. Some one proposed that the thirteen should sing, to let the peaceful in-habitants know that there was some life left from the polling place where the voting was in progress. The bomb was made out of large gas-piping and was eight inches long. The end The fuse was attached to the centre of the bomb. It was taken to a police station, where it still rein the old town.

"All right," said Mr. Fitler, "we'll sing
'Yankee Doodle.'" 'Yankee Doodle.'"

"Oh, I say," spoke up a loyal Australian."

"we'll do nothing of the sort: but we'll sing
'God Save the Queen.'"

The party stopped and argued the matter for a time, but Fitler won the opposition over by marching on ahead and singing "Yankee Doodle" with all his might. An Irish policeman met the procession at a street corner.

"Phwat do yez mane?" said he, with con-stabulary severity. "Sthop it, or I'll run yez in."

Fitler said that he wouldn't stop, and that no one could make him stop, whereupon Mr. Jordan broke in with "God Save the Queen"

Jordan broke in with God Save the grain a tremendous voice.
"Hould yer whist," commanded the policeman, "or I'll run yez in!"
Both Fitler and Jordan protested that they would not stop.
"What will you do about it, anyway?" I'll run yez in, the whole thirteen of yez

"I'll run yez in, the whole thirteen of yez.
Oh, I've counted yez all."
"I'd like to see you do it," said Fitler.
"Go ahead, now. Just try it once."
"Yes, do," urged Jordan.
The policeman looked at the crowd in mingled despair and rage. "It's a mane advantage ye'd be takin' of me," said he.
"There's thirteen of yez, and only wan of me. It's a mane trick, but I'll know yez.
Oh, yes, I'll know yez the next time!"
The procession went its way, to the commingled strains of "Yankee Doodle" and "God Save the Queen."

CRASHED INTO A TRAIN.

Wild Engine on the Eric Kills One Man and Injures Another.

In an accident on the Eric Railway at Se caucus, five miles out from Jersey City, at 6.16 o'clock last evening, John O'Donnell was instantly killed and Pat Dage was sewas instantly killed and Pat Dage was severely injured. Both men were employees of the railroad. They were unmarried.

Passenger train No. 42, eastward bound, was delayed at the Hackensack draw-bridge to allow a boat to pass. Immediately behind the train was a locomotive running "wild."

The bridge was closed and both the train and engine crossed, O'Donnell and Dage leaping on the rear platform.

engine crossed, O'Donnell and Dage leaping on the rear platform.

Secaucus station is about one thousand feet east of the bridge, and the train stopped there for passengers. The engine, however, did not stop until it had crushed into the rear platform, splintering it up, crushing the life out of O'Donnell and maiming Dage. The body of O'Donnell was brought to Jersey City on the train, and Dage was taken to St. Francis's Hospital.

FIGS AND THISTLES.

Dr. William Everett, the chief of the Massach setts mugwumps, knows Virgils " Æneid " and all the odes and epodes of Horace by heart,

Through the courtesy of Mrs. Grant, Gen. Grant's famous old war horse "Claiborne" has been presented to the Soldiers' Home at Leaven-

Mrs. Mart Holcomper, of Brady Island, Neb. cleaned out a den of snakes on her farm last week. killing forty of the reptiles. The only weapon she used was a stout club. A citizen of Dallas (Tex.) has invented an electric fishing line which kills a fish the instant it setzes the hook and at the same time rings a bell on shore to warn the slumbering fisherman. A new importation from Europe is an ingente piece of mechanism in the form of a bird which sings and goes through the motions of a canary with a fidelity to nature that is said to be surprising. During the strike of the printers employed on the Rochester Union, William Purcell, editor of the paper and a member of the State Board of Arbifration, took a " case" and set his "string" just as

The Army and Navy are represented at the Grand Hotel by Libut. Col. J. S. Conrad, U. S. A. and Paymaster John Clyde Sullivan, U. S. X. he used to do years ago. The Marion Improvement Company, of McDow ell, N. C., negan to bore for oil recently but struck Among the prominent arrivals at the St. James are: Paymaster A. J. Clark, of the United States Navy, and Barrister H. W. A. Peto, of London. a rich vein of gold instead. The people are very much excited over the discovery and land near the vein has already gone up to Wichita prices. A gang of the choppers in Colorado recently saw two large buck deer engaged in deadly combat the side of a mountain, near Trinidad. The animais' horns had become locked together so that the men had no difficulty in approaching and killing

P. Kentucky papers contain glowing accounts of the eloquence of Mrs. Lulu [Nield, a lecturer, who is arousing the State to the evils of intemperance. She recently invaded Versailles, the home of Senator Blackburn, and the Woodford Sun says that the distinguished Kentuckian cannot hold a candle to her as an orator.

An execution of a herrible cruel nature is reorted from Chinklang, China. A prisoner was beaten upon the feet at the order of the district magistrate until both ankles were broken and was then forced to stand on tip-toe in a cage until he fell dead upon the floor.

Frank Winne, a Texas negro of no education, is WHEELER H. PECKHAM worked tooth and talent in mechanics being similar to that of Blind cently a steam engine of small size but remarkable power which, it is predicted, will work a revolution in mechanical ideas. It is estimated that the pine trees on the Menomonee reservation, in Wisconsin, where 1,500 In-dians are quartered, would yield $50,000,000 feet of marketable lumber. This lumber is worth $5 per ,000 feet standing, and if the money realized from its sale were put out at interest a handsome annu ity would be secured to each Indian. It is getting to be the fashion now in the upper circles of Chicago society to name children before they are born. Engraved cards are sent to friends the instant the baby makes its advent into the world, and to guard against and mistake in prognostication two sets of cards are printed, one bearing a masculine, the other a feminine, name.

An incendiary mounted on a horse and carrying blazing torch dashed over the Centennial Valley Range, near Laramie, W. T., recently, setting fire to the grass in innumerable places. No wind prevailed and the fires were speedily extinguished; but had the conditions been less favorable thousands of cattle would have been stampeded and great damage done.

The "Newspaper Bess."

[From J. I. Miller's Speech at the German Meeting.] What does the 'newspaper boss" do? He does not stuff ballot-boxes; he does not run primaries; he does not appoint officials, who draw their fat salaries and spend their time and money in corrupting voters. No; but he sits quietly in his office. and through the columns of the press submits certain facts and arguments to the consideration of fellow-citizens. These facts and arguments his fellow-citizens weigh and consider, and if his course receives the assent of their intellects, they may adopt his suggestions and subscribe to his paper; but if his ideas are not agreeable to his readers, they very soon stop taking his paper and take DECEMBER WILL BE MERRY. that of a rival which expresses more nearly their own ideas. Now, where is the danger in all this?

The newspaper boss can influence citizens only by obtaining the assent of their intellects to his pro-BALLS, TEAS AND WEDDINGS.

> Mr. Newbold T. Lawrence and Miss Isabelle Gillet to be Married Early in the Monthto See Irving—New Yorkers to Attend the Wright-Coxe Wedding in Philadelphia.

present outlook December will be a very gay month, with numerous balls, teas and weddings. The marriage of the first week will be that of Mr. Newbold T. Lawrence and Miss Isabelle Gillet, daughter of the late N. Hallock Gillet. will be at 4 in the after-noon, will performed by the Rev. R. W. Howe, jr., assisted by Brooks, at the Church of the Incarnation. There will be six ushers, and no bridesmaids. Mr. Howard E. Case, of Auburn, who, with his mother and his sister-in-law, Mrs.

with his mother and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Willard Case, are guests at the Windsor, gave a dinner party to a number of friends on Saturday, who afterwards witnessed the first production of "Dorothy" at the Standard Theatre.

Mrs. Oscar Livingston's party this evening at the Fifth Avenue Theatre to see Mrs. James Brown Potter will include Miss Kip, Miss Fanshawe, the Misses Ferris, and Messrs. A. A. Bibby, T. J. Oakley Rhinelander and Philip Livingston.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt returned to their home, Fifth avenue and Fifty-seventh street, yesterday for the winter.

New York Athletic Club. The race was over a well-marked out course, exactly five miles in length, and the struggle of the eight contestants could be followed all the way. W. B. Curtis was the referee, Messrs, John H. Stead, N. Y. A. C., and John H. Abeel, ir., N. Y. A. C., kept the time, while Messrs. J. E. Sullivan, B. C. Austin and Walter G. Schuyler acted as judges. The New York Athletic Club man, E. C. Carter won as was expected, after a ratiling Mrs. Kissam, of 73 First place, Brooklyn. The New York Athletic Club man, E. C. Carter, won, as was expected after a rattling race in 34m. 52s., with G. Y. Gilbert, of the same club, second. Skillman, of the Manhattans, came in third: Hickey, his clubmate, fourth; Hjertsberg, of the Olympics, next; Collet, of the Pastimes, sixth, and Thompson and Roth next. The running was superb, and the contest was declared by all who saw it one of the best ever run in this country.

Fifth avenue, took a party of twelve with her. Mr. E. A. Buck had a party with him. Mrs. M. B. Flynn gave a very large party. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Lawrence have returned to this city from Bar Harbor. Mr. Lawrence will give a dinner on Saturday at the Manhattan Club in honor of Count Forresti, of the Italian legation at Washington, and Mortimer Thorn, his future brother-in-law.

Miss Louise Floyd Jones, of Bayside, L. I., is visiting Miss Lallian Gwynn, of 40 West Fifty-eighth street, this week.

A dinner will be given this evening by Mr. Conkling and Miss Laura Conkling, of 27 East Tenth street. The table will be very finely decorated. The favors will be bunches of roses. The guest of honor will be Mrs. M. Livingston. The party will include Mr. and Mrs. Wysong, Mr. Philip Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. Abner Colgate, Mrs. Paran Stevens and Miss Stauffer.

Mrs. Bram Stoker is very much admired, which was begun last night, and the limiting of admissions was strictly adhered to. Powers started as favorite in the best out of fortyone games series, which were played for $100 as ide, at odds of $25 to $20, which John Deery laid several times.

The betting shifted before half a dozen games had been played, and Manning ruled a strong favorite during the rest of the playing. The New York boy, Manning, won by a score of 21 games to 11. Powers did not win after he captured his eleventh game. Mrs. Bram Stoker is very much admired, and it is said that ahe is engaged for months ahead while in this country for dinners to be given in her honor in Boston, Chicago and other sities.

given in her honor in Boston, Chicago and other cities.

Numerous parties from this city will go to-morrow morning to attend the Wright-Coxe nuptials at noon. It will be the most brilliant fashionable wedding of the Philadelphia season. The twelve ushers who will act gave Mr. Wright a dinner on Saturday evening at the Hotel Bellevue. The floral decorations were all dasisies, in honor of the bride-elect, Miss Daisy Coxe, and the menu cards were tied with bunches of daisies and orange blossoms intertwined.

Cincinnati's baseball club's President, A. N. Stern, made a bet of $1,000 to $800 at the Hoffman last night. Three Small Fires. the Eben Peck lumber-yard, at Twenty-fourth street and Eleventh avenue this morning. Yester street and Eleventh avenue this morning. Testerday there was a fire in Police Commissioner McClave's iumber-yard in the same vicinity.

The news-stand of Frank Smith, at Eighth avenue and Minsteenth street, was burned out this morning, involving a loss to building and stock of $150. The oil stove did its work.

Fire broke out on the top floor of the five-story building at 158 East Fifty-third street this morning. The floor was occupied by John Holder, whose loss is about $1,000. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Assaulted at Hor Own Home Lawrence Ruble, forty-two years of age, of 580 Tenth avenue, was arraigned in the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning on a charge of Market Police Court this morning on a charge of assaulting Mary Holland, age fourteen years, of 469 West Forty-second street. It was charged that Ruhle seized the girl by the throat in an outbuilding in the yard of her home and choked her into slience. She made a desperate struggle without avail. Ruhle was frightened away by Mrs. Holland and another woman, who came into the yard. He will have an examination to-morrow.

Among the guests at the Windsor are C. H. Hayden, Pool Commissioner of the wall paper trade, Boston; Chester Holcombe, exsecretary of American Legation at Pekin, and lawyer Ashley Pond, of Detroit. Charged with Forging a Check. Garviau Ellero, age twenty-five years, who was employed in the artist studio of L. Speridon & Co., 30 West Twenty-third street, as a clerk, was ar rested for forging a check for $10 upon the Garfield National Bank, where the artists keep their accounts. He signed the name of L. Sperido, and got the check cashed by W. Fratt Cilvehugh, fire insurance agent, at 50 Clinton place. The forgery was detected at the bank. At the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning Ellero was held for trial. Court to-day. He was arrested on the complaint of Jennie Rayford, of 188 West Thirty-second street. The prisoner entered the house early last night, and represented himself as a detective of Police Headquarters. Placing his hand on the shoulder of Jennie he said: "I arrest you, come along." In the hailway he told her the case could be fixed. She handed him a fg gold piece, and the departed, remarking, "You are sensible. I will see you again."

Deakert's Victim Dead. sexagenarian, has cost a human life. He thoughtlessly and during rage discharged a revolver at eleven-year-old Edward Worth, because impressed with the spirit of local patriotism the boy was tearing some boards from a fence, and the ill-fated builts struck its mark too well. Young Worth received the ball in his breast and, after hours of terrible anguish, he died at his father's home, see East Seventy-first street. Deakert will be compelled to stand a trial for murder.

University Council Election The annual meeting of the New York University ouncil last night elected as members George Henry Moore, LL. D., to succeed William R. Mar-tin; George Alexander, D. D., to succeed S. O., Vanderpoel, M. D. William S. Opdyke was elected Secretary in place of William R. Martin. The other officers were re-elected. The condition of the University was never so prosperous as now.

EVENING WORLD reporter why A. M. Way, the fraudulent sebretary of the Empire Loan, had not been arrested when it is known that he has been at his home for two weeks, during the greater part of which a warrant has been in existence against him. It is said that Way is being shielded by some of the directors, who, fearing trouble for themselves, have promised to make good $7,000 out of which Way defrauded Miss Casey and Miss Brown, Mrs. Maccom and Mrs. McLaughlin hoping then that the complaint which the two first-named made against Way will be withdrawn. A Call to a Baltimore Preacher. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] BRIDGETON, N. J., Nov. 8 .- The congregation of the First Presbyterian Church of Bridgeton last evening extended a call to the Rev. Sylvester W. Beach, of the Tweifth Precinct Presbyterian Church of Baitimore. Mr. Beach will probably

> Kindly Assisted. [From the Washington Ortife.]
> "Look here, my friend," said a well-dresse. man to a Washington policeman last Sunday, ' I want a drink very badly. Can't you help me ist-Episcopal Church now in course of construc-tion, yesterday morning missed his footing and fell a distance of 48 feet, from the roof to the cel-lar, through a network of beams and scaffolding. He was thought to be killed outright, but aside from a severe shake-up and a scalp wound, is mone the worse for his fall. "I can, sir," rejoined the guardian of the peace, who was of Hibernian extraction.

"An, thanks. Here's something for you, by the way. Where did you say I could get a little drink?" Right around the corner to want life. "Right around the corner to your lift, sorr; yese'll foind a poomp an' a dipper." (From Harper's Baser.)

Bure to Hold It. (From the St. Paul Globe.)
"Strap that trunk up well, Mike; if you don't the baggage-men will break it all to p Do yees think so ?" "Sure."
"Bedad, I think Offi fist step firms

ROMANCE OF SETH BATEMAN'S HEIR.

Descried by His Bride the Day After Theth Marriage and Elopement [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

NEWPORT, R. I., Nov. 8.—The death of Seth Bateman and the fact that it is stated on good authority that he has left a fortune variously estimated at from $300,000 to 8400,000, causes a good deal of speculation as to who is heir will be. thought that his adopted son, Seth Bateman Dodge, will inherit a goodly share of the fortune. Young Dodge, whose parents were poor people, living in the adjoining town of Tiverton, succeeded a few whose parents were poor people, living in the adjoining town of Tiverton, succeeded a few years ago in making the greatest social sensation ever achieved in Newport. Mr. Bateman, who has just been buried, kept a fashionable boarding house, and to it the best people of New York flocked. It is situated on the 'Ocean Drive, just the spot for the romance which had its culmination about 1877 or 1878. Among the boarders at that time were Gov. Sanford and family, of Connecticut. His daughter was a pretty, vivacious girl, and as young Dodge was good looking and always around the place, an attachment soon sprang up between the two. One summer evening they were married quietly and eloped to New York and stopped at one of the Fifth avenue hotels. The next morning the bride, Mrs. Sanford Dodge, left her husband at the hotel, telling him that she was going downtown to draw some money out of the bank. She never returned to him. Gov. Sanford was nearly heart-broken, but his the bank. She never returned to him. Gov. Sanford was nearly heart-broken, but his daughter returned to him and he at once set about making an effort to separate the young couple. An active young lawyer was engaged and Dodge was sent to California, richer than he had ever before been, except in the matter of his young love. The young lawyer went to California, too, and succeeded in arranging a divorce. Not and succeeded in arranging a divorce. Not long afterwards he married Mrs. Dodge, née Sanford, himself. Dodge remarried and is now prospering on the Pacific coast. He will probably receive a good bequest by Mr. Bateman's will. James C. Swan and Anthony S. Sherman are the executors, and they get $10,000 each for managing the property.

CHEROKEES PREPARING FOR A WAR. Rallying of the Pactions-Rad Blood and Rad

Mrs. Kissam, of 73 First place, Brooklyn, upon her arrival yesterday on the Etruria, was met by her sister, Mrs. William H. Vanderbilt, and Mrs. Elliott Shepard.

Mr. Henry Brevoort Kane attracts much attention every afternoon on Fifth avenue with his pony tandem, and no tiger.

A number of theatre parties, even from other cities, attended Irving's first performance last evening. These included Mrs. H. C. Hastings and a party of ten from her home in New Haven, and Mr. Walter Herring, who brought on a large party with him from Philadelphia. Mrs. A. E. Kidd, of Fifth avenue, took a party of twelve with him from Philadelphia. Mrs. A. E. Kidd, of Fifth avenue, took a party of twelve with him. Mrs. M. B. Flynn gave a very large party. men. The trouble has been brewing for the past five months over the election of a Chief. At the Council yesterday, Chief Bushyhead's term as Chief expired. The new Council not being organized, L. W. Bell became Chief by virtue of being President of the Senate, thus throwing for the time being the government into the hands of the Downing party. The crowds that begs a to surround the Council Chamber at 9 o'clock kent growing larger, and hundreds of axis and to surround the Council Chamber at 9 o'clo.k kept growing larger, and hundreds of excised indians were watching the proceedings of their representatives, ready at any momer. to engage in a fight. The whiskey peddler is on the ground. If he is not dispensed with trouble will surely come. The Council adjourned without accomplishing anything, both sides being determined that their candidate for Chief should be exected. that their candidate for Chief should be seated. Great crowds are pouring into Tahlequah from the country, helping to swell the enraged populace. If the whiskey can be kept from the crowd order will prevail; but if the Indians are allowed to get it no power can prevent a bloody conflict today.

TO KEEP OUT TURPIE AND PAULENER. the Republicans Hope to Remain Control of the Senate.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] WARHINGTON, Nov. 8 .- There is some talk mong the Republicans of keeping Messrs. Faulkner of West Virginia and Turple of Indiana out of the Senate. If the Democrat carry Virginia to-day, and Faulkner and Turple are seated, the Senate will be a tie after March 4, 1889, and a Democratic Vice-President, if that party is successful next year, will have the deciding vote.

year, will have the deciding vote.

It will be remembered that the Legislature of West Virginia adjourned without electing a successor to Senator Camden, whose term expired on the third of March last. On the fifth of March, the Governor appointed Daniel Lucas Senator to serve until the elec-

Daniel Lucas Senator to serve until the elec-tion of a successor by the Legislature. Some time afterward the Legislature met in extra session and elected Charles J. Faulkner, but it was claimed by some of Lucas's friends that it was not legal to elect at the extra ses-sion, and that Lucas must be the Senator until an election by the Legislature in regu-lar session.

lar session.

Lucas has, of course, never taken his seat, but is probably willing to. It is possible that the swearing in of Faulkner will be objected to, and Lucas also retarded in whatever ambition he may still have in the Sena-

Faith Cure Revival in the South. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENIMO WORLD.] EUFAULA, Ala., Nov. 8.—Mrs. Perry, a faithsure disciple, has been preaching for some days at the Judson Free-Will Baptist Church at White Oak. One lady, whose peculiar disease baffled medical treatment testified to the wonderful chre wrought by the woman preacher and her own prayers. A gentleman with a withered hand for twenty years felt the blood coursing through it again and shouted the praises of the faith oure, and everybody united in praising the woman, "An angel unawares," as they called her, who had wrought those miracles. The neighborhood is enjoying an unusual revival.

A Georgia Farmer Murders His Neighbor. AMERICUS, Ga., Nov. 8. -Zab Wallace was this norning put in jall here for the murder of George Bell. Wallace's hogs got into Bell's potate pate and they had several qurrrels about it. Yesterday morning the quarrel broke out afresh and the mon clinched in fight. Wallace, who had a knite in his hand, stail-bod Bell several times, and as the man was daing in his agms increased the rapidity of his blows. Throwing ils victim's dead body to the ground, he fied, but was captured late in the night.

Sale of a Florida Railroad. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 8. - The Blue Springs, Drange City and Atlantic Railroad was sold yesterday at receiver's sale for $141,500, to E. R. Chapman, representing the New York capitalists who furnished the money to build it. The road is thirty-one miles long, and runs from Orange City, 100 miles south of Jacksonville, Tampa and Key West Railroad, to New Smyrns, on the Atlantic coast. The last-named road bid $140,000. Dexter Hunter was the receiver.

Death of a Well-Known Actor. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

TROY. Nov. 8.-Thomas J. Martin, of Philaeiphia, an actor who played the part of Horatio Chester in "Lost in London," died suddenly this Chester in Lost in London, "uses and cenly this morning at the American House from heart disease. Martin performed his part last night, but complained of lilness. He was forty-two years old. His wife is Marion Fisk, of Daly's Company. Martin was a member of the Actors' Relief Association of New York, and will be buried by that organization.

Striking Girls Adopt New Tactics [SPECIAL TO THE STREETS WORLD.]
PITTEBURG, Nov. &.—The striking issuadry girls have adopted new tactios. With light burgies they now follow the collecting wagons of Brace Bros.' boycotted laundry, learn the fames of patrons and request them to withhold washing. This scheme is Receiling with considerable sneeding.

CHAT ABOUT THE THEATRES.

RIVALRY BETWEEN TWO MEMBERS OF MRS. POTTER'S COMPANY.

r. Bellew is Only "Featured," While Mr. cessful in Cheap Theatres—The Lyconm Company to Go to California—Rehearenle

HERE is said to be some very severe riv-alry between the beautiful and fascinating Kyrle Bellew and the insinuating Joseph Ha. worth. The cause of the "feeling," which was discussed on the highways and byways yesterday, is one that people uninitiated in things theatrical will find it hard to understand. Joseph Ha-worth, be it said, has been engaged by Mr. H. Clay Miner to play in "Loyal Love" the part assigned to Mr. Willard in London. Now Mr. Miner is deliberately and glaringly "starring" Mr. Haworth. He calls him "the young American star," though what on earth Mr. Haworth has done for a star beyond playing for five consecutive weeks in "Rose. dale," is one of those mysteries which will dale," is one of those mysteries which will probably never be solved. Mr. Bellew is merely "featured" on the Potter programme. That is to say, it is announced that Mrs. Potter "is supported by Mr. Kyrle Bellew by courtesy of Henry E. Abbey." He therefore finds himself in a company with two stars, Mrs. Potter and Mr. Haworth, and he is said to feel the indignity very keenly.

Kate Claxton's terribly realistic English melodrams "The Pointsman" will be produced for the first time in this country at the People's Theatre, on Jan. 23. "The Bells of Haselman," now running in London, will be given an American representation during the winter at the Grand Opera-House, by which facts it will be seen that melodrams must be born in cheap theatres in order to live successfully. The success of "Harbor Lights" and "Hoodman Blind" at the Grand Opera-House and People's Theatre and these House and People's Theatre and then failure at Wallack's, has made this fact very apparent to managers.

Manager Al Hayman, of San Francisco, who now surveys Eastern theatrical events from a coay office in the metropolis, signed a contract yesterday to take the Lyceum play, "The Wife," with the entire company, across the continent at the end of its season here. The members of the Lyceum company are people who, during previous visits to the Pacific side, have established themselves as great favorites among Californians, Manager Hayman, it is said, guarantees the Lyceum Theatre a profit of $500 per week for twenty weeks. Rather neat!

"Rudolph" will remain for a fortnight longer at the Fourteenth Street Theatre, after which George Knight will go to Montreal. He will return later to this city to fill an en-gagement at Niblo's Garden,

The regular rehearsals of "She" commence next Monday for the acting cast. The chorus numbers fifty-four voices. The Lyceum Theatfe has lent Thomas Gossman, the property man of that house, to the managers of "She," who need some one to take charge of their "effects." Mrs. Blotter played to an extremely good house at Dookstador's last night, in her favorite comedy "Mile. de Brass Ear." Bouquets were showered upon the lady when she first appeared upon the stage and, after having bowed tumultuously, put her handkerchief to her eyes just as Mrs. Potter did at the Fifth Avenue Theatre. But Dockstades doesn't rely entirely upon Mrs. Blotter He has other attractions. Next week "Faust will be given.

IRVING'S PRODUCTION OF "FAUST" Of course, our acquaintance with devils here beow is extremely limited, and if the name of his Satanic Majesty has as Mr. Irving declared last night-become a byword, it is merely among those people who like to talk of what they don't under-

Henry Irving's conception of the devil Mephis topheles last night was a delightful revelation to me. If the king of evil is as nice and inte and amusing as Mr. Irving imagines him to be, I should like to meet him immense Here is a devil utterly devoid of that awfulness which I have always attributed to him. He chats pleasantly, scintillates with humon, woose plump and comely widow in a most fascinat manner, walks daintily about, and even trills Mephistopheles at the Star Theatre last night was the only character in "Faust" who, if put into real life, would have made himself known. He would have shown us the political world as a Machiavellan politician. Indeed, there is no office that he might not have run for. Faust and

Margaret and Valentine are always namby-pamby

Such a view of Mephistopheles may be very sort of creatures—very usual and very stup shooking, but it is not my fault that Mr, Irving made him so attractive. All his supernatural de-fects would, of course, be overcome in real life. Miss Terry was delightful as the unfortuna Margaret. Her extreme simplicity and the great ifficulty one has to believe that she is only ing" make her performance one that all men and women interested in the stage should see. When he first appeared, an audience who have been satisted with stars wanted her to stand and bow for half an hour while they applauded as most stars like them to applaud. Miss Terry went quietly on with her part and forced the audience into slience. Think of that, ye perfumed stars, with your sickening flowers. ver-the-footlight business and all the rest of your claptrap nonsense ! Two modest pink rose wreaths were handed to Miss Terry last night—none of those wonderful floral devices with "Welcome" in roses, that omehow remind me of the cups one can buy a the sesside marked 'A present to a good boy."

The scenery used in "Faust" was startling. New York is accustomed to handsome stage mountings, but that at the Star Theatre last night was simply magnificent. Faust's dream, the sum-

I didn't care for the witches' kitchen. It looked too much like the old English pantomimes, with the demons and the sprites and the goblins. The company supporting Mr. Irving and Miss Terry is a thoroughly good one. Mr. Alexander nade Faust as vigorous as he could, and Mrs. Chippendale's Martha was a very effective piece of mit of the Brocken and Martha's house were

The audience were enthusiastic, anxious to show their pleasure. They testified to Mr. Irving that all his marvellous little bits of business were duly appreciated. There is no audience on this gio utterly alive to every good thing in a play as an American audience. ALAH DALH.

She Couldn't Stand It.

[Free Old Maid—Jane, did you look under the ed before putting the light out? Second Old Maid-What for ! "To see if there was a man there."